

CLAYTON DENWOOD

"With a band of top-flight players its a unique sound and sensibility that's all his own.

The new music mines a deep vibe that draws in - and draws upon - everything from bluegrass to straight-up blues to bright folk-rock (that "wild, thin mercury sound") to brooding jazz riffs in a Van Morrison mode."

Chris Floyd -Empire Burlesque

"Have not heard anything that recalls so much Basement Tapes era Dylan/Band (with undertones of other Cosmick Americk artists the good ol' Grateful Dead) in a long time.

Extra bonus, Denwoods self-penned songs are rather good themselves.."

Steve Henwood- Bath Folk Festival

"Denwood pours the unsettled spirit of the age into worldly country-ish stuff of the Bob Dylan/Neil Young variety..."

John Harris - the Guardian
